

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

CONDITIONS FOR SERVICE EXECUTION

Examination of the protective electro insulation equipment

- Examination of the protective high voltage electro insulation equipment could be done in the electro-technical laboratory of the “MD PROJECT INSTITUTE “or at the client’s location with the equipment of the electro-technical laboratory. In case that the examination is done on the client’s location, the contractor’s person in charge has the obligation to apply all the safety precautions measures for the safety of the people and the equipment during the examination.
- For the examination to be carried out on the client’s location it is necessary that the client provide the room with electrical and water installations.

The temperature scope of the instrument usage, by the manufacturer’s recommendation is (-10)÷(+50)°C.