

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH DEPARTMENT

CONDITIONS FOR SERVICE EXECUTION

Vocational training of the employees

- The employee has to be older than 18 years, has to be medically capable to perform the work tasks for which he is being trained and has to be assigned by the employer to perform the tasks for which he is being trained
- The confirmation as the proof that the employee has worked at least 6 months on the job for which the vocational training is being performed
- The working equipment that is being used in the practical part of the vocational training of the employees has to be in a working condition. All the protection and working elements necessary for the function in the working process must be installed on the equipment.